FALL COURSES AT WAM – Norm Eggert

Hi Everyone.

Fall is in the air and so is a new season of workshops. I will be teaching workshops at the Worcester Art Museum, Assabet After Dark, and at Mount Wachusett Community College. Please see below for some detail and where to register. If you have any questions please get in touch with me.

We have three workshops coming up in October at the Worcester Art Museum. The website will have all of the information. Here are the classes. Please go to the website: <http://www.worcesterart.org/> for more information - or get in touch with me if you have any questions.

At Assabet After Dark, I will be teaching Outdoor and Nature Photography on Wednesday evenings. Check out the website: <http://www.assabetafterdark.com/index.htm>

Here is the course description:

11833 Outdoor and Nature Photography (Film or Digital)

This class will show students how to improve their nature and outdoor photographs through a mix of classroom discussion, assignments, and field trips.

Learn how to:

- get the most out of your equipment - camera, lenses, filters, tripods, etc.
- use flash in the field
- simplify your composition to make more memorable photographs
- use light, form, texture, shape, and patterns in your photography
- make great close up photographs of insects and plants

Three field trips will provide you with an opportunity to photograph with the instructor who can answer your questions as they come up.

Note: There will be weekly assignments and three Saturday field trips - dates and locations to be announced during first class. Transportation to field trips not provided.

7 classes plus 3 field trips/30 hours total

Norm Eggert is a freelance photographer specializing in photographs of New England.

Wednesdays, September 21 — November 2

6:30 PM – 9:30 PM Course Fee $295

And finally, I am teaching Photography for Beginners at Mount Wachusett Community College in Gardner. Here is the web address: <http://www.mwcc.edu/LLL/default.html>

Photography for Beginners, Digital or Film

New digital or film photographers will learn to get the most out of their camera by improving technical/compositional skills. We will discuss film and digital photography and the differences.

learning how to use the various creative controls on both cameras. We will focus on f stops and shutter speeds, making visually exciting photo compositions, making great flash pictures, and using basic equipment for studio quality pictures. There will be weekly assignments and two Saturday field trips – TBA. Instructor: Norm Eggert

Mon, Sept 19 – Nov 14 (no class Oct 10), 6 – 9PM

For 2012 Quad Club eligibility the image must be taken April 1 2011 or later; so, you can start taking pictures now. We encourage creativity; therefore it is entirely up to the maker what content meets the topic.

Online Digital Submission for Competition:

The submission process introduced last season was a great success. It significantly streamlined the process and more importantly made life easier on Tony who spends a great deal of time receiving and organizing our submissions. We should all thank Charlie Burke for his hard work. We will be using this system again this month.

AVCC COMPETITIONS

Digital Contests – This year we are continuing to focus on Digital competition. Every month we will have two Digital competitions, one open and one assigned. We will be using the same class system we used last year, Class B, A, and adding AA.

Images should have a maximum resolution of 1024 wide by 768 high. The full digital file requirements and a acceptable media information are available on the club web page

<http://www.assabetvalleycameraclub.org/id58.html>

Print competitions – This year we are continuing with three classes, Bronze, Silver, and the Gold class. This year we'll continue to have one print competition a month and will have assigned subjects every other month. Detailed Digital and Print Competition Rules are available on the club web page

<http://www.assabetvalleycameraclub.org/id56.html>

The PSA definition of travel photography

"A photo travel photograph must express the feeling of a time and place, portray a land, its people, or a culture in its natural state, and has no geographical limitations. Ultra close-ups which lose their identity, studio type model shots or photographic manipulations which misrepresent the true situation or alter the content of the image are unacceptable in Photo Travel competition."
